The United Nations at the Crossroads:
What is Michigan’s Interest?

November 14, 2005 – Noon - 2:30 p.m.
The Park Club of Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo, MI

This 2nd annual global issues forum will examine the current phase of reforms at the United Nations and its potential impact on Michigan citizens in the areas of environment, international trade and security. Join in an open dialog with U.S. public officials who share your interest in the United Nations and Michigan’s role in global affairs.

Speakers: Richard T. “Terry” Miller, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Global Issues, U.S. Department of State; Ronald R. Kitchens, CEO, Southwest Michigan First; David C. Hollister, Director, Michigan Department of Labor & Economic Growth (Invited);
Moderator: Lynn Jondahl, Executive Director, Michigan Prospect

For registration information contact jlang@colleaguesinternational.com;
Telephone: 269-341-9494